That sounds fine, as there is no requirement re: work in poor air quality and workers can wear masks to mitigate that. Thanks

Hi Camille,

I just wanted to share the below public complaint that I was just cc'd on regarding the air quality at Highland Estates. I actually did ask Bob last week when I was onsite if they planned to continue working through the smoke, and he told me they did unless it got to what NexGen's supervisors determined to be an unhealthy level.

Thanks,

Are you incredibly mean or just plain stupid to have your employees work in this foul air ?

Check out Purpleair !

They should not be breathing this air.
