Does this cover the remaining 93 acres?

Hi Marilyn,

The land that is not being developed ("Designated Remainder Parcel") is subject to the attached Conservation Easement.

Thanks

Hi there Camille,

I have a question for you. Do you have any written documentation that you can send me or point me to that says the highlands Canyon/trail cannot be developed?

I had an interesting conversation with the head of the HOA And they don't have anything in writing that stipulates that. They also had no idea of the damage that's been done with the trails being made.

They are upset over it.

Thank you!
